Big cheers to the Parent Education Committee on hitting this awesome milestone! We're super excited to invite you to our first-ever event, happening in person at the Westwind Library. It's a great chance to hang out with other parents and find new ways to support your kids. If you can't make it in person, don't worry—we'll have a recording available so you can still catch all the great insights and discussions. Come join us for a night of fun learning, connecting, and good vibes. Can't wait to see you there!
